Table of Contents

About the Authors .................................................................................. vii

Introduction ......................................................................................... xxxiii

Table of Chapters ................................................................................ xxxix

Chapter 1  Wage-and-Hour Issues ................................................. 1

§ 1:1 Introduction .................................................................................. 4

§ 1:2 The Legal Framework of Wage-and-Hour Laws .......... 4

§ 1:2.1 Minimum Wage ................................................................. 6

[A] FLSA ....................................................................................... 6

[B] California .................................................................................. 6

[C] New York .................................................................................. 8

§ 1:2.2 Overtime Exemptions ........................................................ 9

[A] FLSA ....................................................................................... 9

[A][1] Federal White Collar Overtime Regulations .......... 9

[A][1][a] Minimum Salary Requirement .................... 9

[A][1][b] Rules for “Highly Compensated” Employees .... 10

[A][1][c] Salary Basis Requirement ............................ 10

[A][1][c][i] Permissible Deductions ............................... 11

[A][1][c][ii] Consequences of Improper Deductions .... 12

[A][1][c][iii] Safe Harbor ......................................................... 13

[A][1][d] White Collar Exemption .................................... 13

[A][1][d][i] Executive Exemption ........................................ 13

[A][1][d][ii] Administrative Exemption ......................... 15

[A][1][d][iii] Professional Exemption ............................. 16

[A][1][d][iv] Computer Employee Exemption ............... 17

[A][1][d][v] Outside Sales Exemption ............................. 17

[A][2] Commission Sales Exemption ............................. 18

[A][3] Motor Carrier Act Exemption ............................. 19

[A][4] Companionship Exemption .................................. 20

[A][5] Belo Plan ................................................................. 20

[B] “White Collar” (New York) Exemptions .................. 21

[C] California Exemptions .................................................... 22

[C][1] Executive Exemption .................................................... 22

[C][2] Administrative Exemption ....................................... 22

[C][3] Professional Exemption .......................................... 24

[C][4] Outside Sales Exemption ....................................... 25

[C][5] Other Exemptions ....................................................... 26

[C][5][a] Computer Professionals ........................................ 26

[C][5][b] Certain Medical Professionals .......................... 28

[C][5][c] Commissioned Employees ............................... 28

[C][6] Salary Basis Test ......................................................... 29
Extraterritorial Application of the Labor Code—
   The Sullivan v. Oracle Decision ........................................... 30
 § 1.2.3 Independent Contractors and Temporary Workers .......... 31
[ ] Independent Contractors ..................................................... 33
[ ] Temporary Workers and Joint Employment ....................... 34
[ ] Determining Employer Status ............................................. 34
[ ] Wage-and-Hour Issues ...................................................... 36
§ 1.2.4 Interns .......................................................................... 36
§ 1.2.5 Tip Pooling and California Labor Code Section 351 ......... 38
§ 1.2.6 Reimbursement of Expenses ......................................... 40
[ ] California ........................................................................ 40
[ ] New York ........................................................................ 41
§ 1.2.7 Wage Deductions (New York) ...................................... 41
§ 1.2.8 Hours Worked .............................................................. 43
[ ] “Hours Worked” Defined .................................................. 43
[ ] Meal Breaks ...................................................................... 44
[ ] FLSA ............................................................................... 44
[ ] California ........................................................................ 44
[ ] New York ........................................................................ 46
[ ] On-Call and Waiting Time Under the FLSA ....................... 47
[ ] “De Minimis” Activities ..................................................... 47
[ ] Travel Time ...................................................................... 49
§ 1.2.9 Calculating Overtime Premiums: Determining the Regular Rate .................................................. 51
[ ] Premium Pay ................................................................. 52
[ ] Per Diem ......................................................................... 52
[ ] Sick Leave Buy-Backs ....................................................... 52
[ ] “Blended” Pay Rates ......................................................... 53
[ ] California Regular Rate ..................................................... 53
§ 1.2.10 Implementing “Flextime” Schedules ......................... 53
§ 1.2.11 Workweek Designation .............................................. 55
§ 1.2.12 Employee Notice ....................................................... 55
[ ] California ........................................................................ 55
[ ] New York ........................................................................ 56
§ 1.2.13 Fluctuating Workweeks ............................................. 57
[ ] The FWW Method of Calculating Overtime ....................... 58
[ ] Preconditions on Using the FWW Method ......................... 59
[ ] Using the FWW Method to Calculate Damages in Misclassification Cases ........................................... 60
§ 1.2.14 Commissions/Bonuses/Incentive Compensation Plans .... 61
[ ] California ........................................................................ 61
[ ] New York ........................................................................ 62
§ 1.2.15 Individual Liability .................................................... 63
[ ] FLSA ............................................................................... 63
[ ] California ........................................................................ 63
§ 1.2.16 Spread-of-Hours Pay (New York) ............................ 64
§ 1.2.17 Payment of Final Wages ............................................ 65
[ ] New York ........................................................................ 65
Table of Contents

[B] California ...........................................................................65

§ 1:3 Wage-and-Hour Collective Class Action Process and Procedures ......................................................................................66

§ 1:3.1 Collective Actions Under the FLSA ....................................67

[A] Potential Members Must Expressly “Opt In” to the Class ....67

[B] Applicability of Requirements of Rule 23 to FLSA Collective Actions .................................................................68

[C] Class Certification Under the FLSA ......................................69

[C][1] Overview ...........................................................................69

[C][2] The Notice Stage: Plaintiffs Request Class Certification/
Authorization to Send Notice to Putative Class Members;
Courts Authorize Notice When Putative Members
Are “Similarly Situated” .................................................................69

[C][3] Stage Two—Defendant’s Motion to Decertify ..................72

[D] FLSA Statute of Limitations ..................................................73

[E] Waiver of FLSA Claims ..........................................................73

[F] Litigation Issues ......................................................................74

[F][1] Burdens of Proof .................................................................74

[F][2] Interaction of State and Federal Actions—
Hybrid Actions ...........................................................................75

[G] Rule 68—Offers of Judgment ..................................................76

§ 1:3.2 California Class Actions ......................................................76

[A] Governing Authority ...............................................................77

[B] Requirements for Establishment of California
Class Actions ....................................................................................77

[C] California Wage-and-Hour Class Actions .........................78

[D] Procedural Issues in Class Action Lawsuits .........................79

[D][1] Opt-Out Requirement ..........................................................79

[D][2] Class Certification’s Preclusive Effects ............................80

[D][3] Statute of Limitations ..........................................................80

[D][4] Settlement of California Class Actions ............................80

§ 1:3.3 Representative Actions Under Business and Professions Code Section 17200 ..................................................81

[A] Applicability to Wage-and-Hour Law .................................81

[B] Equitable Relief Versus Damages .........................................82

[C] Statute of Limitations ..............................................................83

§ 1:3.4 California Labor Code Private Attorney General Act ........83

§ 1:3.5 Shady Grove: Federal Preemption of State Law
Limits on Certification ...................................................................85

§ 1:4 Conclusion ..........................................................................86

Chapter 2 OFCCP Developments ..................................................87

§ 2:1 Introduction ..........................................................................88

§ 2:2 Overview of the OFCCP ......................................................88

§ 2:2.1 Organizational Responsibilities, Structure, and Jurisdiction ....................................................................................88
EMPLOYMENT LAW YEARBOOK 2014

§ 2:2.2 Enforcement
§ 2:3 Covered Government Contractors and Subcontractors
§ 2:4 Recent Developments
§ 2:4.1 Tackling Equal Pay
§ 2:4.2 Regulatory Initiatives: Final Rules Regarding Hiring Veterans and Individuals with Disabilities
§ 2:4.3 Compliance Initiatives
§ 2:4.4 Enforcement
[A] Directive No. 310: Calculating Backpay as a Part of Make-Whole Relief for Victims of Employment Discrimination
[B] Recent Case Law
[B][1] Proving a Pattern or Practice of Discrimination Based on Statistics Alone
[B][2] Aggregating Minority Groups for Comparison in Proving Disparate Impact Discrimination
[C] Expansion of OFCCP’s Jurisdiction
[C][1] UPMC Braddock v. Harris
[C][2] OFCCP v. Florida Hospital of Orlando
[C][3] OFCCP v. O’Melveny & Myers LLP
§ 2:4.5 Settlements
[A] Discriminatory Hiring Procedures Based on Invalid Tests
[B] Sex Discrimination; “Sex Stereotyping”

Chapter 3 Gender and Sexual Orientation Discrimination and Sexual Harassment

§ 3:1 Introduction
§ 3:2 Discrimination Based on Gender and Related Characteristics
§ 3:2.1 Gender Discrimination
[A] Class Action Certification
[B] Evidence
[C] Mixed-Motive Discrimination
[D] Reverse Bias Sex Discrimination
[E] Consensual Relationships in the Workplace
[F] Damages Limitation
§ 3:2.2 Sexual Orientation and Gender Stereotyping
§ 3:2.3 Benefits for Same-Sex Partners
§ 3:2.4 Pregnancy Discrimination and Nursing Mother Laws
Table of Contents

[A] Pregnancy Discrimination Act ................................................. 126
[B] Protections for Nursing Mothers............................................. 130
§ 3:2.5 Physical and Testing Requirements................................. 133
§ 3:2.6 Health Plan Coverage Issues ............................................ 136
[A] Prescription Contraceptive Coverage ................................ 136
§ 3:3 Equal Pay Act ....................................................................... 138
§ 3:3.1 Establishing a Prima Facie Case ..................................... 139
§ 3:3.2 Employer Defenses .......................................................... 141
§ 3:3.3 Statute of Limitations ....................................................... 143
§ 3:3.4 EEOC Guidance .............................................................. 148
§ 3:3.5 Legislation and Administrative Developments ................. 148
§ 3:4 Sexual Harassment ............................................................... 150
§ 3:4.1 Discrimination Because of Sex ........................................... 151
§ 3:4.2 Explicit Alteration of Fundamental Conditions of Employment: Tangible Employment Action ........................... 153
[B] EEOC Enforcement Guidance on
“Tangible Employment Action” ............................................. 154
§ 3:4.3 Constructive Alteration of Conditions of Employment or a Hostile Work Environment ............................................. 155
[A] Welcomeness ...................................................................... 155
[B] Cases Finding Severe or Pervasive Requirement Met ....... 156
[C] Cases Finding Severe or Pervasive Requirement Not
Met .................................................................................. 158
§ 3:4.4 Affirmative Defenses......................................................... 159
[A] Employer’s Duty to Exercise Reasonable Care to Prevent Harassing Behavior ................................................. 160
[B] Employer’s Duty to Exercise Reasonable Care to Correct Harassing Behavior Promptly................................... 162
[B][1] Employer Response Found to Be Inadequate ................. 162
[B][2] Employer Response Found to Be Appropriate .............. 163
[B][3] Employer Liable for Retaliation by Other
Non-Supervisor .................................................................... 164
[B][4] Acts of Non-Employees.................................................... 166
[C] Employee Unreasonably Failed to Take Advantage of Opportunities to Avoid Harm ......................................... 167
[C][1] Plaintiff’s Failure to Complain .......................................... 168
[C][2] Timeliness of Plaintiff’s Complaint................................. 170
[D] EEOC Enforcement Guidance on Employer Liability for Harassment by Supervisors .......................................... 171
§ 3:4.5 Evidentiary Issues in Sex Harassment Cases: Effect of Statute of Limitations on Evidence of Acts Occurring
Before Limitations Period .................................................. 172
§ 3:4.6 Application of Legal Standards: Summary Judgment
Versus Jury Trials ............................................................. 175
§ 3:4.7 Punitive Damages............................................................. 176
EMPLOYMENT LAW YEARBOOK 2014

§ 3:4.8 Principles of Vicarious Employer Liability and Concepts of Agency: When Is an Individual Considered a “Supervisor”? .........................................................177

§ 3:4.9 Individual Supervisor Liability ...........................................179
[A] Federal Law .................................................................179
[B] State Law .......................................................................179
[B][1] California ....................................................................179
[B][2] New York .....................................................................180

§ 3:4.10 Other Procedural Issues ....................................................180
[A] “Pattern-or-Practice” Cases ..............................................180
[B] EEOC “Waiting Period” ..................................................182

§ 3:4.11 Theories Used by Accused Sexual Harassers Who Have Been Disciplined or Terminated .....................................183

§ 3:4.12 Attorney Fees Where Plaintiff’s Lawsuit Is Frivolous, Unreasonable, or Without Foundation .................184

Chapter 4 Race, Religion, and National Origin Discrimination ..........................................................187

§ 4:1 Race ..................................................................................187
§ 4:1.1 Subordinate Bias, “Cat’s Paw,” “Rubber Stamp” Theory .............................................................189
§ 4:1.2 “Me Too” Evidence ........................................................193
§ 4:1.3 Summary Judgment Test in “Mixed-Motive” Cases ....195
§ 4:1.4 Section 1981 Claims .......................................................198
§ 4:1.5 “Class-of-One” Claims in Public Employment ..........201
§ 4:1.6 Adverse Employment Action ........................................202
§ 4:1.7 Reverse Bias in Promotional Examinations .................205
§ 4:1.8 Other Promotional Issues: Lists and Affirmative Action .................................................................210
§ 4:1.9 Tests and Selection Procedures— EEOC Guidance Fact Sheet ..................................................214
§ 4:1.10 “Associated with” Claims .............................................215
§ 4:1.11 EEOC Procedural and Compliance Issues .................216
§ 4:1.12 Insufficient Evidence of Race Discrimination/Bias ...222
§ 4:1.13 Sufficient Evidence of Race Discrimination/Bias ....227
§ 4:1.14 Title VII Class Action Issues ......................................230
§ 4:1.15 Title VII Standing ........................................................234

§ 4:2 Religious Discrimination ....................................................236

§ 4:3 National Origin Discrimination ........................................245

Chapter 5 Age Discrimination ..........................................................253

§ 5:1 Introduction .......................................................................254
§ 5:2 Procedural Requirements ..................................................256
§ 5:2.1 A “Charge” with the EEOC ...........................................256
§ 5:2.2 Timeliness and Equitable Tolling ...................................258
Table of Contents

§ 5:2.3 ADEA Safe Harbor—Retiree Benefit Plans....................... 259
§ 5:3 Who Is an Employer for Purposes of the ADEA?.................... 262
§ 5:4 Who Is an Employee for Purposes of the ADEA? ................... 264
§ 5:4.1 The Law Enforcement Exception ................................... 265
§ 5:5 Plaintiff’s Burden to Prove a Prima Facie Case................... 266
§ 5:5.1 Employer’s Legitimate Expectations ................................ 268
§ 5:5.2 Stray Remarks .................................................................. 269
§ 5:5.3 Similarly Situated ............................................................ 270
§ 5:6 Employer’s Legitimate Nondiscriminatory Business Reason .... 271
§ 5:7 Plaintiff’s Burden to Prove Employer’s Lawful Reason
Is Pretext for Age Discrimination ............................................. 272
§ 5:7.1 Insufficient Evidence of Pretext ........................................ 272
§ 5:7.2 Sufficient Evidence of Pretext........................................... 275
§ 5:8 Retaliation Against Protected Activity............................... 278
§ 5:9 Methods of Proof: Mixed Motives, Direct and Circumstantial,
Pattern or Practice, and Disparate Treatment or Impact ............. 281
§ 5:9.1 Mixed Motives ................................................................. 281
§ 5:9.2 Direct and Circumstantial Evidence .................................. 284
§ 5:9.3 Pattern or Practice ......................................................... 286
§ 5:9.4 Disparate-Impact Theory ................................................. 287
§ 5:9.5 Other Methods of Proof ................................................... 289
§ 5:10 Releases and Waivers......................................................... 291
§ 5:10.1 The Requirements of the OWBPA .................................. 291
§ 5:10.2 Case Law Regarding OWBPA Releases ......................... 293
[A] Ratification and Tender Back Under the OWBPA .................... 293
[B] Cure of the Defective Release ............................................. 294
[C] Invalid Waiver As a Separate Cause of Action .................... 295
[D] OWBPA Requirements Not Applied to Non-Age Claims ........ 296
§ 5:10.3 EEOC Regulations Regarding OWBPA Releases ............ 296
[A] Wording of Waiver Agreements ........................................... 297
[B] Waiver of Future Rights ...................................................... 298
[C] Consideration ................................................................. 299
[D] Consultation ..................................................................... 299
[E] Time Periods ..................................................................... 300
[F] Informational Requirements ............................................. 300
[F][1] To Whom the Information Must Be Given ..................... 301
[F][2] Mandatory Information ................................................. 301
[H] EEOC’s Enforcement Powers ............................................ 304
[H][1] Tender Back ................................................................. 304
[H][2] Covenants Not to Challenge Waiver ............................. 304
[H][3] Abrogation .................................................................. 305
[H][4] Burden ........................................................................ 305
§ 5:11 Other Issues....................................................................... 305
§ 5:11.1 Arbitration of ADEA Claims .......................................... 305
§ 5:11.2 Remedies ..................................................................... 306
§ 5:11.3 Harassment Based on Age ............................................ 308
Chapter 6  EEO Class Actions

§ 6:1 Introduction.................................................................311
§ 6:2 Recent Developments....................................................312
§ 6:3 Litigating Class Action Certification ...............................320
§ 6:3.1 Certification Elements of a Class Action .........................320
[A] Numerosity .................................................................321
[B] Commonality ................................................................322
[B][1] Need for Reasonable Connection Between the Claims of the Named Plaintiffs and the Alleged Class and Within the Class.........................322
[B][1][a] Commonality Based on Decentralized, Subjective
Decision-Making and Dukes v. Wal-Mart ..................323
[B][2] Commonality in Harassment Cases...............................329
[C] Typicality .................................................................330
[D] Adequacy of Representation ......................................330
[D][1] Adequacy of Counsel ................................................331
[D][2] Relation Between Class Representatives and Class........331
§ 6:3.2 Maintainability of the Class Action Suit—Fulfillment of Rule 23(b) Generally ................................................332
[A] Opting Out .................................................................333
[B] Rule 23 Notice Amendments ........................................334
§ 6:3.3 Fulfillment of Rule 23(b) in Employment Discrimination
Class Actions .................................................................335
[A] Certification Under Rule 23(b)(2) in Actions That Involve Compensatory and Punitive Damages ..............335
[B] Discrimination Class Actions Under Rule 23(b)(3) ..........337
[C] WARN Act Cases .........................................................338
§ 6:3.4 Appellate Review of Class Certification Decisions .........338
[A] Interlocutory Review ....................................................338
[B] Review After Named Plaintiff’s Claim Has Become Moot...339
[C] Interlocutory Appeal of Conditional FLSA Collective Actions .................................................................339
§ 6:3.5 Other Class Action Issues ...........................................340
§ 6:4 Disparate-Treatment and Disparate-Impact Cases............341
§ 6:4.1 Disparate-Treatment Class Actions ............................342
§ 6:4.2 Disparate-Impact Class Actions ..................................343
§ 6:4.3 Special Problems in Multi-Facility Cases ....................345
§ 6:5 Punitive Damages in Disparate-Treatment Pattern-or-Practice
Cases .................................................................346
§ 6:6 Opt-In Class Actions ..................................................347
§ 6:7 Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 .................................348
§ 6:7.1 The Purpose and Intent of the Law ..............................349
§ 6:7.2 Basis for Federal Court Jurisdiction ............................349
§ 6:7.3 What Is a Covered Class Action? ...............................352
§ 6:8 EEOC Litigation ..........................................................353
Table of Contents

| § 6:8.1 | Pursuing Pattern-or-Practice Claims Under Section 706 of Title VII | 353 |
| § 6:8.2 | Statutes of Limitation Under Section 707 | 359 |
| § 6:8.3 | Rule 23’s Inapplicability to Pattern-or-Practice Claims | 360 |
| § 6:8.4 | Attorney-Client Privilege | 363 |
| § 6:9 | Statistical Evidence | 363 |
| § 6:9.1 | Need for Appropriate, Probative Statistical Comparisons | 365 |
| § 6:9.2 | Regression Analyses | 369 |
| § 6:9.3 | Statistical Significance | 372 |
| § 6:9.4 | Attacking Plaintiffs’ Statistics | 375 |
| § 6:9.5 | Summary | 377 |
| § 6:10 | Settlement of Class Actions | 378 |
| § 6:10.1 | Rule 23 Amendments | 378 |
| § 6:10.2 | Class Certification for Settlement | 379 |

Chapter 7  Americans with Disabilities Act | 383 |
| § 7:1 | Introduction | 385 |
| § 7:2 | The EEOC Experience to Date | 386 |
| § 7:3 | Basic Issues Under the ADA | 387 |
| § 7:3.1 | EEOC Regulations Implementing the ADAAA | 387 |
| [A] Revisions to “actual disability” Prong | 388 |
| [B] Revisions to “record of” Prong | 390 |
| [C] Revisions to “regarded as” Prong | 390 |
| § 7:3.2 | Who Is a “Qualified Individual”? | 391 |
| [A] Physical or Mental Impairment | 393 |
| [B] Temporary or Intermittent, Episodic Impairments | 395 |
| [C] Substantial Limitation | 395 |
| [D] Major Life Activities | 399 |
| [E] Perceived Impairments | 401 |
| [F] Association with a Disabled Person | 402 |
| [G] Exclusions from the Definition of Disability | 403 |
| [G][1] Excluded Matters | 403 |
| [G][2] Drugs and Alcohol—Specific Provisions | 403 |
| § 7:3.4 | Qualification | 405 |
| [A] Essential Functions of the Job | 405 |
| [B] Estoppel from Claiming Ability to Perform Essential Job Functions | 407 |
| [C] Direct Threat | 407 |
| [D] Causation | 408 |
| § 7:3.5 | Ministerial Exception | 409 |
| § 7:4 | The Duty to Provide Reasonable Accommodation | 411 |
| § 7:4.1 | EEOC Reasonable Accommodation Enforcement Guidance | 411 |
| § 7:4.2 | Statutory and Regulatory Examples of Reasonable Accommodation | 412 |
§ 7:4.3 2013 Department of Labor Survey .............................................. 413
§ 7:4.4 When Is an Employer Obligated to Make a Reasonable Accommodation? .............................................. 414
§ 7:4.5 Identifying Reasonable Accommodations .............................................. 416
§ 7:5 What Is Reasonable Accommodation? .............................................. 419
§ 7:5.1 Accommodation for Applicants .............................................. 419
§ 7:5.2 Job Restructuring and Reallocation of Job Duties .............................................. 419
§ 7:5.3 Light Duty .............................................. 419
§ 7:5.4 Transfer or Reassignment to a Vacant Position .............................................. 420
  [A] Accommodation Required .............................................. 420
  [B] Accommodation Not Required Where Employee Fails to Identify Vacant Position for Which He or She Is Qualified .............................................. 423
  [C] Transfer to a New Position Is Accommodation of Last Resort .............................................. 423
§ 7:5.5 Modification of Work Schedule/Attendance Requirement .............................................. 424
  [A] Accommodation Required .............................................. 424
  [B] Accommodation Not Required .............................................. 425
§ 7:5.6 Work at Home/Work Outside the Office .............................................. 426
§ 7:5.7 Transportation to and from Work .............................................. 426
§ 7:5.8 Requests for Leave .............................................. 427
§ 7:5.9 Modifying No-Fault Attendance Policies As a Reasonable Accommodation .............................................. 427
§ 7:5.10 Duty to Provide Reasonable Accommodation for Perceived Disability .............................................. 428
§ 7:6 Disability Harassment .............................................. 428
§ 7:7 Job Application Procedures: Pre- and Post-Offer Inquiries .............................................. 429
§ 7:7.1 Pre-Offer Inquiries .............................................. 430
  [A] Disability-Related Questions .............................................. 431
  [B] Liability for Improper Inquiries of Applicants Without Disability Status .............................................. 433
§ 7:7.2 Post-Offer Inquiries .............................................. 435
§ 7:7.3 Qualification Standards in Hiring .............................................. 437
§ 7:7.4 Medical Examinations and Safeguarding Medical Information .............................................. 438
  [A] What Is a Medical Examination? .............................................. 439
  [B] What Constitutes a Conditional Job Offer After Which a Medical Examination May Be Required? .............................................. 440
§ 7:7.5 Other Lawful Disability-Related Inquiries and Medical Examinations .............................................. 440
§ 7:8 Employer Defenses to Requests for Reasonable Accommodation .............................................. 441
§ 7:8.1 Undue Hardship .............................................. 441
§ 7:8.2 Direct Threat to Health or Safety of Individual or Others .............................................. 442
§ 7:8.3 Limitation Period .............................................. 443
Table of Contents

§ 7:9 The Application of the ADA to Employers’ Health Insurance Plans .......................................................... 444

§ 7:10 Relief Available Under the ADA ............................................. 445

§ 7:11 Conclusion .............................................................................. 447

Chapter 8  Employee Privacy Law ...................................... 449

§ 8:1 Introduction ............................................................................ 453

§ 8:2 Pre-Employment Inquiries ....................................................... 453

§ 8:2.1 A Framework for the Interview Process ............................ 453

§ 8:2.2 Prohibited Subjects........................................................... 455

[A] Name/Marital Status ........................................................ 455

[B] Age/Birthdate ................................................................. 455

[C] Health and Physical Condition ......................................... 456

[D] AIDS ........................................................................... 456

[E] Arrest Records .................................................................. 457

[F] Convictions ...................................................................... 458

[H] Religion........................................................................... 460

[I] Sex and Marital Status ...................................................... 460

[J] Past Drug Use .................................................................. 461

[K] Genetic Information ......................................................... 461

[L] Facially Neutral Criteria ................................................... 462

§ 8:2.3 Using the Internet to Research Applicant’s Background...................................................................... 463

§ 8:2.4 Best Practices for the Interview Process ......................... 463

[A] Brief the Recruiters and Interviewers ................................. 463

[B] Adopt a Checklist ............................................................. 464

[C] Allocate Interview Responsibility ..................................... 464

[D] Provide Examples of Permissible Questions....................... 464

[E] Use Evaluation Forms....................................................... 464

[F] Guidelines Based on ADA Provisions................................ 464

§ 8:3 The Employer’s Need to Know Versus the Employee’s Right to Privacy—The Bases of the Right to Privacy ............... 465

§ 8:3.1 Constitutional ............................................................... 465

[A] Federal ............................................................................. 465

[A][1] Searches by Public Employers ........................................... 466

[A][2] Investigations of Applicants and Employees by Public Employers ......................................................... 468

[B] New York ........................................................................ 469

[C] California .......................................................................... 469

[C][1] Hill v. NCAA ................................................................... 470

[C][2] Analyzing Privacy Interests in the Employment Context ...... 471

[C][3] Hill’s Progeny ................................................................. 471

§ 8:3.2 Statutory .......................................................................... 474

[A] Federal ............................................................................. 474
§ 8:3.3 Common-Law Privacy Protections for Private Employees
[A] California ................................................................. 479
[B] New York ................................................................. 480

§ 8:3.4 Application of Privacy Laws to Technology
[A] Email ........................................................................ 480
[B] Blogs and Social Media ................................................ 483
[C] GPS Tracking ............................................................. 485

§ 8:3.5 Reasons to Monitor Employees’ Use of Electronic Media
[A] Claims Not Barred by California’s Workers’ Compensation Law ........................................ 489

§ 8:3.6 Third-Party Discovery of Employee Information .............................................................. 487

§ 8:3.7 NLRA Implications for Employee Privacy Policies ............................................................... 488

§ 8:3.8 Tort Liability................................................................................................................................. 489
[A] Whether an Employee’s Expectation of Privacy Is Reasonable ................................................ 490
[B] Analyzing the Employer’s and the Employee’s Competing Interests ........................................ 491
[B][1] Federal Cases .......................................................... 491
[B][2] New York ................................................................. 492
[B][3] California ................................................................. 493

§ 8:3.9 Application of the Right to Privacy ............................................................................................ 490
[A] Whether an Employee’s Expectation of Privacy Is Reasonable ................................................ 490
[B] Analyzing the Employer’s and the Employee’s Competing Interests ........................................ 491
[B][1] Federal Cases .......................................................... 491
[B][2] New York ................................................................. 492
[B][3] California ................................................................. 493

§ 8:3.10 Practical Guidelines for Employee Searches ............................................................................. 494

§ 8:4 Substance Abuse.............................................................................................................................. 495

§ 8:4.1 In General ................................................................................................................................. 495

§ 8:4.2 Determining the Appropriate Type of Drug and Alcohol Policy ................................................ 496
[A] Determine the Extent and Risk of Drug and Alcohol Use by Employees .................................... 496
[B] Determine Whether Federal or State Law Requires or Prohibits Any Particular Drug or Alcohol Policy in Your Workplace ........................................................................ 496
[B][1] Legal Requirements for Federal Contractors and Grantees ................................................ 496
[B][1][a] The Drug-Free Workplace Act ......................................................................................... 496
[B][1][b] Defense, Transportation, and Nuclear Regulatory Commission Regulations ......................... 497
[B][2] Legal Restrictions on Drug Testing ........................................................................................... 497
[B][2][a] U.S. Supreme Court Cases ................................................................................................. 497
[B][2][b] Lessons of the Customs and Railway Cases ......................................................................... 499
[B][2][c] Random Drug Testing Addressed by U.S. Supreme Court ................................................. 499
[B][2][d] California Cases ................................................................................................................. 500
Table of Contents

[B][2][c] California and Ninth Circuit Decisions Regarding the Constitutionality of Drug Tests ............................. 501
[B][3] Civil Rights Statutes......................................................... 502
[B][4][a] Defamation and Invasion of Privacy ......................... 503
[B][4][b] Negligent Hiring and/or Retention of Employees....... 503
[B][4][c] False Imprisonment .................................................... 504
[B][4][d] False Arrest................................................................. 504

§ 8:4.3 Considerations When Adopting a Drug or Alcohol Policy .............................................................................. 504
[A] Any Drug and Alcohol Policy Should Be Communicated in Writing................................................................. 505
[B] Considering a Rehabilitative Option ................................... 505
[C] A Supervisor’s Role Should Be Determined and Communicated ................................................................. 506
[D] Consider Other Preventive Measures and Investigative Techniques ................................................................. 506
[E] Consider Negative Implications Before Adopting a Drug-Testing Program ..................................................... 508

§ 8:4.4 Developing a Drug-Testing Policy.................................... 508
§ 8:4.5 Implementing Drug-Testing Policies................................. 511

§ 8:5 Investigations and Testing on Prospective and Current Employees ................................................................. 511
[A] Initial Issues to Address Before Conducting Background Investigations ................................................................. 511
][A][1] Determining the Applicants on Whom to Perform Background Checks ......................................................... 514
[A][2] Information to Be Obtained from Background Checks ..... 514
[A][3] Who Should Perform Background Checks .................... 514
[A][4] Information Employers Should Obtain from Applicants to Perform Background Checks ................................. 515
[B] The Fair Credit Reporting Act and Its Amendments .......... 515
[B][3] Inquiries Should Be Job-Related ................................... 516
[B][4] Obsolete Information ....................................................... 517
[B][5] Penalties for Noncompliance .......................................... 517
[C] Supplemental California Laws ........................................ 517
[C][1] California’s Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act ....... 517
[C][2] California’s Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act ................................................................. 518
[D] Supplemental New York Laws .......................................... 519
[E] Summary of Steps an Employer Should Take When Requesting Consumer Reports ........................................ 519
EMPLOYMENT LAW YEARBOOK 2014

[E][1] Provide Initial Notice and Obtain Written Authorization ..............................................................................................................519

[E][1][a] Additional Initial Disclosure Requirements for Consumer Credit Reports Under the CCRAA ........................................................519

[E][1][b] Additional Requirements for Investigative Consumer Reports ...........................................................................................................520

[E][2] Provide Certification of Compliance to the CRA ...............................................521

[E][2][a] Additional Certification That an Employer Should Make to the CRA When Requesting an Investigative Consumer Report ...........................................................................................................522

[E][3] Provide the Consumer with Information ......................................................................................................................522

[E][4] Provide Adverse Action Notice After Adverse Employment Action Has Been Taken ...........................................................................522

[E][5] Under the ICRAA, Investigative Information May Be Disclosed in All Cases ...........................................................................523

[F] Suggestions for Hiring and Conducting Background Checks ...........................................................................................................523

§ 8:5.2 Compiling Background Information Without Utilizing the Services of a CRS and Conducting Internal Investigations ...........................................................................................................524

[A] When an Employer Uses an Outside Entity for an Internal Investigation ..............................................................................................524

[B] When an Employer Does Not Use an Outside Entity to Compile Investigative Information or Conduct an Investigation ...........................................................................................................525

[B][1] Investigative Consumer Reports That an Employer Compiles in Connection with Its Application Process ...........................................................................526

[B][1][a] References ......................................................................................................................526

[B][1][b] Prior Employers ................................................................................................................527

[B][2] Internal Investigations That an Employer Conducts in Response to an Allegation or Suspicion of Employee Misconduct or Wrongdoing ...........................................................................527

[B][2][a] Attorney-Client Privilege/Attorney Work Product ...........................................................................................................528

§ 8:5.3 Polygraph Examinations ...........................................................................................................529

[A] In General ......................................................................................................................529

[B] Record Keeping ................................................................................................................530

[C] Rights of the Examinee ...........................................................................................................531

§ 8:5.4 Honesty Testing ...........................................................................................................532

§ 8:5.5 Tests of Skills and Abilities ..............................................................................................533

§ 8:5.6 Psychological and Psychiatric Testing ...........................................................................533

§ 8:5.7 Fingerprints and Photographs ..............................................................................................534

§ 8:5.8 Genetic Testing ...........................................................................................................534
Table of Contents

Chapter 9 Guarding Trade Secrets ........................................... 537
§ 9:1 Introduction ..................................................................... 541
§ 9:2 What Is a Trade Secret? ................................................... 542
§ 9:2.1 Uniform Trade Secrets Act and the California
Definition ................................................................. 542
[A] Secrecy ......................................................................... 545
[A][1] Publicly Known Through Internet Disclosure .......... 547
[B] Reasonable Efforts to Preserve Secrecy ....................... 548
[B][1] Require That Employees (and Third Parties) Who Are Given Access to Trade Secrets Sign Confidentiality
Agreements ................................................................. 548
[B][2] Alert Employees (and Third Parties) with Access to Trade Secrets Regarding Their Confidential Nature .... 549
[B][3] Limit Access to Only Those Employees (and Third Parties)
Who “Need to Know” Trade Secrets to Perform
Their Jobs ...................................................................... 549
Through Display, Publication, Advertising, Etc .............. 550
[C] Value Derived from Secrecy ......................................... 550
§ 9:2.2 Restatement of Torts and the New York Definition .... 551
§ 9:2.3 Trade Secret Protection Checklist ............................ 553
§ 9:3 Keeping Employees from Competing or Working for Competitors upon Their Departure .................................. 555
§ 9:3.1 Background .............................................................. 555
§ 9:3.2 In Most States, Covenants Not to Compete Will Be Enforced If They Are Necessary to Protect a
Legitimate Interest of the Employer ............................ 557
[A][1] Trade Secrets As a “Legitimate Employer Interest” .... 561
[A][2] Customer Lists As a “Legitimate Employer Interest” ... 562
[A][3] Customer Solicitation As a “Legitimate Employer
Interest” ................................................................. 563
[A][4] An Employee’s Unique Services As a “Legitimate Employer Interest” .................................................. 564
[B] Reasonableness Standard for Enforcement of Covenants
Not to Compete ........................................................... 565
[C] Other Factors Affecting the Reasonableness of Covenants
Not to Compete ......................................................... 566
§ 9:3.3 Garden Leave and Notice Provisions ....................... 568
§ 9:3.4 The Employee Choice Doctrine ............................... 568
§ 9:3.5 Under California Law, Employee Covenants Not to Compete upon Termination of Employment Are Void .... 570
[A] The California Rule and Its Application ...................... 570
[A][1] The Policy Behind the California Rule ................... 571
the California Rule ................................................... 571
EMPLOYMENT LAW YEARBOOK 2014

[A][3] California Courts Will Not Rewrite an Overly Broad Non-Compete Provision to Make It Valid .......................572
[B] California Courts May Enforce Certain Types of Non-Compete Clauses That Limit, but Do Not Prohibit, Competition .......................................................................................572
[B][1] Covenants by Employees Not to Use or Disclose Their Employers’ Trade Secrets Are Enforceable in California ..........572
[B][2] Prohibition Against a Limited Subset of Activities ..........573
[B][3] The Trade Secrets Exception ......................................573
[B][4] Other Statutory Exceptions Allowing Restraints on Competition ........................................................................574
[C] Enforcement of Non-Solicitation Clauses .......................575
[C][1] What Is “Solicitation”? .................................................575
[C][2] Customer Solicitation .................................................576
[C][3] Competitor Employee Raiding Absent a Non-Solicitation Clause .................................................................576
[C][4] No-Hire Agreements .....................................................577

§ 9:4 Preventing Departing Employees from Using or Disclosing Trade Secrets .................................................................578
§ 9:4.1 Background .....................................................................578
§ 9:4.2 Sources of Protection for Employers .........................578
[A] Civil Remedies for Trade Secret Misappropriation ............578
[A][1] Basis for Liability ...........................................................578
[A][2] Available Remedies .......................................................580
[A][3] Limitations Periods .......................................................580
[A][4] Risks Associated with Civil Discovery .........................581
[B] The Inevitable Disclosure Doctrine May Be Used to Prevent Misappropriation of Trade Secrets .................................581
[B][1] New York and Most Other States Have Adopted the Inevitable Disclosure Doctrine ..................................582
[B][2] California Has Rejected the Inevitable Disclosure Doctrine ........................................................................585
[C] Other Potential Remedies Available to the Employer ..........586
[C][2] Tortious Interference with Contractual Relations ..........587
[C][3] Computer Fraud and Abuse Act ..................................587
[C][3][a] Broad View .............................................................589
[C][3][b] Narrow View ...........................................................591
[C][3][c] Recent Trends ............................................................594
[C][3][d] Future Outlook ..........................................................598
[C][4] Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act ........599
[D] Effect of Trade Secret Preemption ..................................599
[E] Criminal Statutes .........................................................600
[E][1] Federal Statutes ............................................................600
[E][2] California Statutes .........................................................605
[E][3] New York Statutes ........................................................606
Table of Contents

§ 9:5 Protection of Trade Secrets Abroad ................................................. 607
§ 9:5.1 Trade Secrets Under German Law ........................................ 607
  [A][1] Secrecy Obligations of Employees ..................................... 608
  [A][1][a] Protection of Trade Secrets During Employment .......... 608
  [A][1][b] Protection of Trade Secrets After Employment .......... 609
  [B] The Protection of Trade Secrets Under the Act
      Against Unfair Competition ........................................... 610
  [C] The Protection of Trade Secrets Under the German
      Criminal Code .................................................................. 611
  [D] Violations of Secrecy Obligations During Employment .... 611
  [D][1] Measures of Labor Law ................................................ 612
  [D][2] Further Legal Actions .................................................. 613
  [E] Violations of Secrecy Obligations After the End of Employment ................................................................... 614
  [F] Cross-Border Protection of Trade Secrets ....................... 615
  [G] Recommendations ......................................................... 615
§ 9:5.2 Trade Secrets Under British Law ........................................ 616
  [A] Choice of Law .................................................................. 616
  [B] The Duarte Danger .......................................................... 617
  [C] Samengo-Turner .............................................................. 618
  [D] European Safeguards ....................................................... 619
  [E] Lawful Protections and Public Policy Considerations in the United Kingdom ....................................................... 621
  [E][1] Implied Duties ............................................................ 621
  [E][1][a] Fiduciary Duties .......................................................... 621
  [E][1][b] Duty of Fidelity ........................................................ 622
  [E][1][c] Duty of Confidentiality .............................................. 622
  [E][2] Express Duties .............................................................. 624
  [E][2][a] Confidentiality .......................................................... 624
  [E][2][b] Intellectual Property ..................................................... 625
  [E][2][c] Duty Not to Compete During Employment .................. 625
  [E][2][d] Post-Termination Restrictive Covenants ...................... 625
  [E][3] Enforceability of Restrictive Covenants ......................... 626
  [E][3][a] Public Policy ............................................................. 626
  [E][3][b] Reasonableness ......................................................... 626
  [E][3][c] Legitimate Interests ..................................................... 626
  [E][3][c][i] Trade Connections or Goodwill ............................... 626
  [E][3][c][ii] Trade Secrets and Confidential Information ............. 627
  [E][3][c][iii] The Stability of the Workforce, in Terms of Retention of Employees ................................................... 627
  [E][3][d] Scope ..................................................................... 627
  [E][3][d][i] Length .................................................................. 627
  [E][3][d][ii] Area .................................................................... 628
  [E][3][d][iii] Consideration ....................................................... 628
  [E][3][d][iv] Group Companies .................................................. 628
  [E][3][d][v] Tailoring to Circumstances ...................................... 629
  [E][3][e] Severability .............................................................. 630
Table of Contents

[E] Restrictive Covenants ...................................................... 671
[F] Risk Monitoring .............................................................. 672

Chapter 10  Reductions in Force ............................................. 673
§ 10:1  Introduction ................................................................. 676
§ 10:2  Discrimination and Common-Law Causes of Action ........ 676
   § 10:2.1  Potential Discrimination Claims ................................. 676
      [A] In General ................................................................. 676
      [B] Disparate-Treatment Theory ........................................ 677
      [C] Disparate-Impact Theory ............................................ 678
   § 10:2.2  Common-Law Claims ............................................... 680
   § 10:2.3  Evidentiary Considerations ...................................... 681
      [A] Impermissible Statements ........................................... 681
      [B] Reorganized Job Responsibilities .................................. 682
      [C] Statistics ............................................................... 683
      [D] Competence and Performance ..................................... 684
      [E] Cost Factor ............................................................. 684
      [F] “Me Too” Evidence ................................................... 685
   § 10:2.4  Potential Liability and Damages ................................ 686
§ 10:3  Planning for a Reduction in Force .................................. 687
   § 10:3.1  Establish Corporate Justification for RIF ..................... 688
   § 10:3.2  Practical Considerations for Implementing a Reduction in Force .................................................. 688
      [A] Workforce Analysis and Demographics .......................... 689
      [B] Management Training ............................................... 690
      [C] Communication with Employees ................................... 690
      [D] Selection of Employees for Retention ............................ 691
         [D][1] Generally ........................................................... 691
         [D][2] Jobs and Their Relative Value ................................. 691
         [D][3] Evaluation and Relative Ranking of Employees .......... 692
            [D][3][a] Performance Evaluations Generally .................. 692
            [D][3][b] Evaluation Criteria ....................................... 693
            [D][3][c] Existing Versus New Evaluations ....................... 694
            [D][3][d] Comparative Employee Ranking ......................... 695
      [E] Oversight ............................................................... 696
         [E][1] Workforce Analysis ............................................... 696
         [E][2] Evaluation of Jobs/Employees ................................. 697
         [E][3] Thorough Review of Individual Problems ................... 697
         [E][4] Exit Interview ..................................................... 698
      [F] Post-RIF Considerations .............................................. 698
   § 10:3.3  Obtaining Releases ................................................ 699
   § 10:3.4  Obtaining ADEA Releases ....................................... 701
      [A] General Waiver Requirements Under the OWBPA ............. 701
      [B] “Knowing and Voluntary” Requirement .......................... 702
      [C] Wording of Waiver Agreement ..................................... 703
      [D] Specific Referral to Rights or Claims ............................ 704
EMPLOYMENT LAW YEARBOOK 2014

[E] Waiver of Future Rights .......................................................... 704
[F] Consideration ........................................................................ 704
[G] Consultation with Attorney ..................................................... 705
[H] Time Periods .......................................................................... 705
[H][1] Time to Consider Agreement .............................................. 705
[H][2] Time to Revoke Release ..................................................... 707
[I] Special Informational Requirements for Group Termination “Programs” .................................................. 707
[I][1] Exit Incentive or Other Employment Termination Programs ............................................................................... 707
[I][2] Organizational Unit Defined.................................................. 708
[I][3] Eligibility Factors ............................................................... 710
[I][4] Presentation of Information .................................................. 711
[I][4][a] Categorization of Employees ............................................ 711
[I][4][b] Scope of Disclosure ......................................................... 713
[J] Other Requirements Under OWBPA ........................................ 713
[J][1] Waivers Settling Charges or Lawsuits ................................. 713
[J][2] Burden of Proof .................................................................. 713
[J][3] EEOC’s Enforcement Power ................................................ 714
[K] EEOC Regulations on ADEA Waivers .................................... 714
[K][1] No Ratification of Waiver by Employee’s Retention of Severance Payments .................................................. 715
[K][2] “Tender Back” ...................................................................... 715
[K][3] Restitution/Set-Off .............................................................. 716
[K][4] Covenants Not to Challenge Waiver .................................... 716
[K][5] Abrogation .......................................................................... 716
[K][7] Invalid Waiver As a Separate Cause of Action .................... 718
[K][8] Effect of Invalid Waiver on Timeliness of ADEA Suit ........... 718
[L] OWBPA Requirements Not Applied to Non-Age Claims .......... 719
[M] Admissibility of Unsigned Agreement in ADEA Action ......... 719

§ 10:4 Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification (WARN) Act .......................................................... 720
§ 10:4.1 Who Must Give Notice .................................................... 721
§ 10:4.2 Mass Layoffs and Plant Closings Under WARN ............... 722
[A] “Plant Closing” Defined .......................................................... 722
[B] “Mass Layoff” Defined ........................................................... 722
[C] “Reduction in Force” Defined .................................................. 723
[D] “Single Site of Employment” Defined ..................................... 724
[E] “Part-Time Employee” Defined ............................................... 725
[F] “Employment Loss” Defined ................................................... 726
[G] Losses Must Be Aggregated .................................................... 730
[H] Temporary or Delayed Layoff ................................................ 730
[I] Temporary Hire Exception ...................................................... 731
[J] Strike or Lockout Exception .................................................... 732
§ 10:4.3 To Whom Notice Must Be Given and What a Valid Notice Must Include .................................................. 732
Table of Contents

[A] To Whom Notice Must Be Given ........................................ 732
[B] What a Valid Notice Must Include .................................... 732
§ 10:4.4 When Less Than Sixty Days’ Notice Can Be Given ...... 733
[A] Faltering Company Exception ........................................... 733
[B] Unforeseeable Circumstances Exception ........................... 734
[C] Act of Nature Exception .................................................. 735
§ 10:4.5 WARN and Bankruptcy.............................................. 735
§ 10:4.6 Waiver of WARN Claims ............................................ 736
§ 10:4.7 Penalties for Violating WARN ..................................... 737
[A] Penalties ........................................................................ 737
[B] Payments in Lieu of Notice .......................................... 737
§ 10:4.8 WARN Class Actions................................................. 738
§ 10:4.9 Right to Jury Trial ..................................................... 738
§ 10:4.10 California WARN Act .............................................. 739
[A] Labor Code Section 1400 et seq., Applies to More Employers Than WARN Covers ............................... 739
[B] Labor Code Section 1400 et seq., Appears to Cover Parent Companies .................................................. 740
[C] Absent Extraordinary Circumstances, Covered Employers Must Provide Notice of Layoffs, Relocations or Terminations, or Face Significant Damages and Stiff Penalties ........................................... 740
§ 10:4.11 New Jersey WARN Act ........................................... 741
[A] Who Must Give Notice .................................................. 741
[B] Definition of Employment Loss ....................................... 741
[C] To Whom Notice Must Be Given .................................... 742
[D] What a Valid Notice Must Include ................................... 742
[E] Penalties ....................................................................... 742
[F] Establishment of a Response Team ................................. 743
§ 10:4.12 New York WARN Act ........................................... 743
§ 10:5 Conclusion .................................................................. 747

Chapter 11 Whistleblowing and Other Retaliation Claims ................................................. 749

§ 11:1 Introduction ................................................................. 750
§ 11:2 An Overview of Retaliation Under the EEO Laws ......... 753
§ 11:2.1 The Retaliation Analysis .......................................... 756
§ 11:2.2 The Prima Facie Case ................................................ 757
[A] Element 1: Protected Activity ........................................... 757
[A][1] The Opposition Clause .................................................. 760
[A][1][a] Examples of Protected Opposition Activity .................. 761
[A][1][b] Examples of Unprotected Opposition Activity .......... 762
[A][1][c] Reasonable and Non-Disruptive Requirement ............ 763
[A][1][d] Reasonable, Good-Faith Belief Requirement .......... 764
[A][2] The Participation Clause .............................................. 767
[A][2][a] Participation in Litigation Process ............................... 767

lxi
EMPLOYMENT LAW YEARBOOK 2014

[A][2][a][i] Examples of Protected Participation Activity ..........767
[A][2][a][ii] Examples of Non-Protected Participation Activity ...768
[A][2][b] Lying During an Investigation ..................................769
[B] Element 2: Adverse Employment Action .......................769
[B][1] Standard for Evaluating Whether an Employer's Action
Is Retaliatory .................................................................771
[B][1][a] Burlington Northern & Santa Fe Railway Co. v. White ....771
[B][1][b] Cases Interpreting Burlington ................................773
[B][2] Retaliation Based on Use of Judicial Process ...............775
[B][4][a] Retaliation Against “Closely Related” Individuals and Associational Retaliation ...........................................778
[B][4][b] Retaliation by Different Entities .................................781
[C] Element 3: Proof of Causal Connection ..........................781
[C][1] Direct Evidence of Retaliation .....................................782
[C][2] Circumstantial Evidence of Retaliation ..........................785
[C][2][a] Proving Causation with Circumstantial Evidence of Retaliation .................................................................786
[C][2][b] Temporal Proximity ...................................................786
[C][2][b][i] Cases Holding Inference of Causation Exists .............787
[C][2][b][ii] Cases Holding Inference of Causation Does
Not Exist ...........................................................................788
[C][3] Retaliatory Action Imputable to Employer .................789
[C][3][a] “Cat’s Paw” Theory of Liability ..............................790
[C][3][b] Retaliatory Harassment .............................................792
[C][3][b][i] Retaliatory Acts Will Be Imputed to Employer
Where Employer Orchestrated Harassment ..................792
[C][3][b][ii] Retaliatory Acts Will Be Imputed to Employer
Where Employer Orchestrated Harassment, Knew About Harassment, or Failed to Stop It ......793
[C][4] Prior Criticism of Performance .......................................795
§ 11:2.3 Rebutting the Prima Facie Case—Legitimate Business
Reasons and the Employer’s Lack of Retaliatory Intent ....796
§ 11:2.4 Pretext .....................................................................799
§ 11:3 The Whistleblower Protection Act .............................800
§ 11:4 First Amendment Retaliation Claims .........................802
§ 11:5 Title IX Retaliation ...................................................815
§ 11:6 Sarbanes-Oxley and Whistleblower Law ....................815
§ 11:6.1 Recent Amendments to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act .........817
§ 11:6.2 Recent Case Law Developments .............................818
§ 11:7 Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection
Act of 2010 .................................................................826
§ 11:7.1 Dodd-Frank Act Whistleblower Incentives .................826
§ 11:7.2 Dodd-Frank Whistleblower Protections ....................828
[A] Retroactivity ..............................................................829
[B] Reconciling Whistleblower Definition and Anti-Retaliation Protections .............................................830
Table of Contents

[C] Extraterritoriality........................................................................ 834
[D] Pre-Dispute Arbitration Agreements/Waivers of Claims... 835
§ 11:7.3 New Consumer Financial Whistleblower Protections...... 835

Chapter 12 Employee Blogging and Social Media........ 837

§ 12:1 Introduction ........................................................................... 838
§ 12:2 General Concerns with Employee Blogging and Social Networking................................................. 839
§ 12:3 Ownership of Business-Related Blogs and Social Media Content.................................................................. 840
§ 12:4 Laws and Regulations Governing Employee and Employer Liability ......................................................... 842
§ 12:4.1 National Labor Relations Act ........................................... 842
[A] Scope of Protected “Concerted Activity”.......................... 842
[B] Lawful Social Media Policies............................................. 843
[B][1] Recent NLRB Decisions.................................................. 844
[B][2] Recent Guidance from the NLRB’s Office of the General Counsel............................................................... 845
[C] Lawful Discipline for Violations of Social Media Policies ............................................................................ 848
§ 12:4.2 Federal Trade Commission Guidelines for Employee Reviews of Company Products................................................. 849
§ 12:4.3 Negligent Supervision Liability for Employee Online Activity................................................................. 850
§ 12:4.4 Whistleblowing, the First Amendment, and Retaliation ... 850
[A] Whistleblower and Retaliation Laws ................................... 850
[B] The First Amendment and Retaliation Jurisprudence ...... 852
§ 12:4.5 Equal Employment Opportunity Laws ............................................ 855
[A] Social Media and Hiring Decisions.................................... 855
[B] Discovery of Current Employees’ Protected Status or Protected Activity Through Social Media ..................... 857
[C] Obligation to Rectify Complaints of Unlawful Conduct ... 858
[D] Nondiscriminatory Investigation and Enforcement of Social Media Policies......................................................... 859
§ 12:4.6 Restrictive Covenants ...................................................... 859
§ 12:4.7 State Laws Pertaining to Off-Duty Conduct................. 860
[A] New York Labor Law......................................................... 860
[B] California Labor Law........................................................ 861
§ 12:4.8 The Right to Privacy and the Stored Communications Act.................................................................. 863
§ 12:4.9 New Laws Prohibiting Employers’ Access to Employees’ Social Media Accounts ................................................. 865
§ 12:5 Utilizing Social Media in Litigation................................. 867
§ 12:5.1 Scope of Discoverability of Blogs and Social Media....... 867
§ 12:5.2 Methods of Discovering Blogs and Social Media .......... 869
§ 12:5.3 The Importance of Prompt Discovery Notices .......... 871

lxxiii
§ 12:5.4 Limitations on Attorney Research Using Blogs and Social Networking Sites .................................................... 872
§ 12:5.5 Publicizing Litigation Proceedings via Blogs and Social Networks ............................................................... 873

Chapter 13 Family, Medical, and Military Leave: Recent Developments Under the FMLA and USERRA ............................................ 875
§ 13:1 Introduction ............................................................................. 877
§ 13:2 FMLA and Interpreting Regulations ......................................... 878
  § 13:2.1 Basic Requirements .......................................................... 878
    [A] “Covered Employer” ........................................................ 878
    [A][1] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 878
    [A][2] Selected Cases.......................................................... 879
    [B] “Successor in Interest” ...................................................... 880
    [B][1] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 880
    [B][2] Selected Cases.......................................................... 881
    [C] “Eligible Employee” ......................................................... 882
    [C][1] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 882
    [C][2] Selected Cases.......................................................... 883
    [D] Reasons for Leave......................................................... 883
      [D][1] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 883
      [D][2] Selected Cases.......................................................... 886
    [E] Amount of Leave Entitlement ........................................... 887
      [E][1] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 887
      [E][2] Selected Cases.......................................................... 888
    [F] Serious Health Condition ................................................. 889
      [F][1] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 889
      [F][2] Selected Cases.......................................................... 890
  § 13:2.2 Employer’s Obligation to Provide Notice of Need for Leave ............................................................................ 890
    [A] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 890
    [B] Selected Cases.......................................................... 892
  § 13:2.3 Employer’s Obligation to Designate Leave and to Provide Notice of Rights ......................................................... 893
    [A] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 893
    [B] Selected Cases.......................................................... 895
  § 13:2.4 Healthcare Provider’s Certification ...................................... 895
    [A] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 895
    [B] Selected Cases.......................................................... 898
  § 13:2.5 Substitution of Paid Leave .................................................. 899
    [A] Applicable Regulations .................................................. 899
  § 13:2.6 Continuation of Health Insurance .......................................... 900
  § 13:2.7 Intermittent and Reduced Leave Schedules Under the FMLA ................................................................. 901
  § 13:2.8 Right to Reinstatement ...................................................... 902
Table of Contents

- [A] Applicable Regulations .......................................................... 902
- [B] Selected Cases ................................................................. 903

§ 13:2.9 Prohibition of Interference, Discrimination, or Retaliation ................................................................. 904
- [A] Applicable Regulations .......................................................... 904
- [B] Selected Cases: Discrimination and Retaliation .................... 906
- [C] Selected Cases: Interference .................................................. 907

§ 13:2.10 Eleventh Amendment Sovereign Immunity ..................... 910

§ 13:2.11 Statute of Limitations ...................................................... 911

§ 13:2.12 Personal Liability ............................................................ 911

§ 13:2.13 Relief Available Under the FMLA ............................... 911
- [A] Applicable Statute .............................................................. 911
- [B] Selected Cases ................................................................. 912

§ 13:2.14 Waiver of Rights Under the FMLA ............................... 913

§ 13:2.15 Miscellaneous Issues ..................................................... 913
- [A] Arbitration of FMLA Claims ............................................... 913
- [B] FMLA Preemption ............................................................ 913
- [C] Bankruptcy Estoppel .......................................................... 913
- [D] Exacerbation Claims Under the FMLA ................................ 914

§ 13:3 Military Leave ................................................................. 915

µ 13:3.1 Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 ......................................................... 915
- [A] Important Concepts Under USERRA ................................ 917
- [B] Reemployment Rights ....................................................... 917
- [B][1] Employee’s Responsibility to Provide Documentation of Service ................................................................. 918
- [B][2] Returning Employees’ Employment Rights .................... 919
- [B][3] Disabled Employees’ Rights Under USERRA ................ 920
- [B][4] Selected Cases .............................................................. 920
- [C] Changed Circumstances ..................................................... 921
- [D] Compensation and Benefits ............................................... 922
- [E] Prohibition on Discrimination and Acts of Retaliation ........ 923
- [E][1] Important Concepts ....................................................... 923
- [E][2] Selected Cases .............................................................. 924
- [F] Release of USERRA Claims ............................................... 926
- [G] Arbitration of USERRA Claims ......................................... 927
- [H] Eleventh Amendment Sovereign Immunity and State Law Preemption—Selected Cases ................................. 927

Chapter 14 Arbitration .............................................................. 929

µ 14:1 Introduction ................................................................. 930

µ 14:2 Class Action Arbitration and Waivers ............................... 932

µ 14:2.1 Whether Arbitration of Class Claims Is Permissible ........ 932

µ 14:2.2 The Enforceability of Class Action Waivers .................. 936
- [A] General Principles and Concepcion .................................. 936
- [B] The Impact of Concepcion in California ............................ 941
Table of Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>Impact of Concepcion Outside of California ........................................ 944</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>Concepcion and the National Labor Relations Act ............................... 947</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:2.3</td>
<td>Whether Federal Statutory and State Law Employment Claims Are Arbitrable .................................................. 951</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Title VII ........................................................................... 951</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Age Discrimination in Employment Act and the Waiver Restrictions of the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act ................................................................. 952</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>Fair Labor Standards Act ........................................................................ 954</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>Sarbanes-Oxley ............................................................................... 955</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E</td>
<td>USERRA Claims .............................................................................. 957</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>State Law Claims ........................................................................... 958</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:3</td>
<td>Whether an Arbitration Agreement Will Be Given Full Effect If It Does Not Provide All Available Statutory Remedies............................................................. 959</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:3.1</td>
<td>Background .................................................................................. 959</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:3.2</td>
<td>Punitive Damages ........................................................................ 960</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:3.3</td>
<td>Attorney Fees ............................................................................... 963</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:3.4</td>
<td>Equitable Relief ........................................................................... 963</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:4</td>
<td>Enforceability of Arbitration Agreements ............................................ 964</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:4.1</td>
<td>Whether Arbitration Agreements in Employment Documents, Contracts, Partnership Agreements, and Employee Handbooks Are Enforceable ........................................ 964</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:4.2</td>
<td>Whether the Agreement to Arbitrate Must Be Knowing and Voluntary .................................................................................. 967</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:4.3</td>
<td>Whether an Agreement to Arbitrate Is an Unconscionable Contract of Adhesion ........................................................................ 969</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Procedural Unconscionability ............................................................ 970</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Substantive Unconscionability ........................................................... 972</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:4.4</td>
<td>Whether the Employer Must Pay All Arbitration Costs ............................ 974</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:4.5</td>
<td>Whether Arbitration Agreements Are Enforceable by Third Parties ............................................................. 977</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:5</td>
<td>EEOC Litigation on Behalf of Employee Subject to an Agreement to Arbitrate .................................................................................. 978</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:6</td>
<td>Questions of Arbitrability: Who Decides? ............................................ 980</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:7</td>
<td>The Scope of Judicial Review of Arbitration Awards ........................................ 984</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:7.1</td>
<td>Limited Grounds for Vacating an Arbitration Award ................................ 984</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:7.2</td>
<td>“Manifest Disregard of the Law” .......................................................... 984</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:7.3</td>
<td>Other Grounds for Judicial Review .......................................................... 987</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:8</td>
<td>Whether the Right to Compel Arbitration Can Be Waived ......................... 991</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 14:9</td>
<td>Conclusion ..................................................................................... 993</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Table of Cases ........................................................................................................ 995

Index ......................................................................................................................... 1037