CONTENTS:

PROGRAM SCHEDULE ........................................................................... 7

FACULTY BIOS ...................................................................................... 13

1. Managing Difficult Employees and Litigants
   (December 4, 2014) ........................................................................ 27
   Stuart B. Kleinman, M.D.
   Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons

2. Psychological Issues in Employment Law 2015—Selected
   Decisions ......................................................................................... 39
   Stephen P. Sonnenberg
   Michaela C. Dudley
   Paul Hastings LLP

3. Dealing with Emotions in Mediation of Employment Disputes........ 57
   Ruth Raisfeld
   Ruth D. Raisfeld P.C.

4. Psychiatric and Psychological Exams of Employees (Outline)....... 67
   Marc A. Cohen, M.D.
   Park Dietz & Associates, Inc.

5. Employee Examinations: When Employer Directed Exams are Prudent and Appropriate (December 2014) ............................. 77
   Kenneth M. Willner
   Stephen P. Sonnenberg
   Aaron J. Ver
   Paul Hastings LLP
6. Permissible and Impermissible Inquiries Under the ADA: When Can an Employer Ask for Medical Information or Require an Employee to Have a Medical Exam ..................... 175
   Susan Ritz
   Ritz, Clark & Ben-Asher LLP

7. Emotional Distress Damages: Legal, Practical and Ethical Issues ........................................................................................................ 189
   Zachary D. Fasman
   Proskauer Rose LLP

8. Ethical Issues and Professional Responsibilities When Lawyers Work with Psychiatrists and Psychologists (PowerPoint slides) ........................................................................ 211
   Anne L. Clark
   Vladeck, Waldman, Elias & Engelhard, P.C.
   Zachary D. Fasman
   Proskauer Rose LLP
   George W. Woods, Jr., M.D.
   University of California, Berkeley School of Law

INDEX ....................................................................................................................... 245

Program Attorney: Danielle B. Cohen