CONTENTS:

PROGRAM SCHEDULE ........................................................................... 7

FACULTY BIOS ...................................................................................... 15

1. SEC’s Administrative Enforcement Intensifies Fairness Debate (November 6, 2014) ........................................................... 67
   Submitted by:
   Carmen Lawrence
   King & Spalding LLP

2. Securities Enforcement 2014 Year-End Review (January 2015) ................................................................................ 77
   Adam S. Hakki
   Shearman & Sterling LLP

3. Significant Securities Litigation Decisions of 2014 and Early 2015 .............................................................................. 131
   Paul C. Gluckow
   Jonathan K. Youngwood
   Simpson Thatcher & Bartlett LLP

4. The Use of Confidential Witnesses in Securities Litigation (February 13, 2015) ................................................................. 153
   Paul C. Gluckow
   Anar Rathod Patel
   Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP

5. Technological Competency in Discovery ...................................... 175
   Karin A. DeMasi
   Sandra Rampersaud
   Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP
   Michael L. Kichline
   Ryan Moore
   Dechert LLP

7. Being of One Mind: Corporate Scienter and Securities Fraud Liability.................................................................207
   Lyle Roberts
   Cooley LLP

   Submitted by:
   Dr. Patrick Conroy
   National Economic Research Associates (NERA)

9. Attorney-Client Privilege and Work Product Protection in Government Investigations: To Waive or Not to Waive ..........263
   Jonathan K. Youngwood
   Nicholas S. Goldin
   Yafit Cohn
   Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP

10. ‘Here’s Johnny!’: Carnacing the Future of the SEC’s Preemption Overreach........................................................281
    C. Evan Stewart
    Cohen & Gresser LLP

11. Attorney-Client Privilege: Misunderestimated or Misunderstood? .................................................................297
    C. Evan Stewart
    Cohen & Gresser LLP

    C. Evan Stewart
    Cohen & Gresser LLP

INDEX ................................................................................................... 317

Program Attorney: Willis Goodmoore