PLI PLUS: New Look and New Name!

PLI Discover PLUS recently became PLI PLUS. The new name also brings a clean new interface and a new URL. These cosmetic changes provide a facelift without changing the functionality or the high-quality content.

For an overview of the updated platform, take a look at our Getting Started Guide or view our one minute, 14 second introduction video.

PLI PLUS Search Tip

We added an Immigration practice area filter so you can quickly view all of our Immigration-focused content. When you are on the Browse page or a Search Results page, you can select Immigration from the practice area facet menu.

If you want to share this list, we make the permalink available so that you can email it to a colleague or even post it to a practice group page.

A Letter from PLI Manager of Library Relations, Christina Davis

Hello from our New York City office! We have had a busy start to 2017: we participated in the Association of American Law Schools Annual Meeting, the George Washington University Law School's 8th Annual Lawlapalooza Research Fair, and the Boston College Spring into Practice Legal Research Fair. In addition, the rebranding of PLI PLUS has provided a good opportunity for many of our customers to schedule refresher training sessions. If you would like to schedule one, contact me at PLUS@pli.edu. Last week's balmy March days in New York City also reminded me that summer is not too far off. Feel free to contact us now to set a date for your summer associate trainings.
