

Research Topic Guide – Cybersecurity

This is a great place to begin your research because all PLI publications are secondary sources that contain expert analyses of today's legal controversies. Our publications, form templates, and program transcripts provide users with authoritative background information, as well as insights into the positions of leading practitioners from law firms, corporations, government, and academia.

Scenario: Following several well-publicized cybersecurity breaches at major organizations, a researcher is tasked with drafting a memo on how a client might adopt the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Cybersecurity Framework

Search: NIST /s cyber!

Results: Search results include publications, program transcripts, and forms such as:

- Annual Institute on Privacy and Data Security Law
- Cybersecurity: A Practical Guide to the Law of Cyber Risk
- Cybersecurity: Managing Cybersecurity Incidents
- Cybersecurity in the Age of Regulators Gone Wild
- Financial Services IT: Avoidance of Risk
- Health Care IT: New Technology, New Legal Issues
- Internal Investigations
- The Law and Business of Open Source Software
- NIST Cybersecurity Framework Internal Review Checklist
- Picking up the Pieces After a Cyber Disaster: Risk Management and Litigation Strategies

The screenshot shows the PLI PLUS website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Logout, Help, My Account, Contact Us, and Go to PLI.edu. Below this is a search bar containing the query "NIST /s cyber!". The search results are displayed in a list format, with the first result being "Appendix A. NIST Cybersecurity Framework". The search filters on the left include Format (Answer Books, Course Handbooks, Forms, Transcripts, Treatises) and Date (2010-Present, 2000-2009, 1990-1999, 1980-1989). The search results are sorted by Relevance and show 90 total results. The first result is a Treatise Chapter titled "Appendix A. NIST Cybersecurity Framework" by Edward R. McNicholas, Sidley Austin LLP, and Vivek K. Mohan, supplemented in August 2016. The second result is "Appendix B. NIST Cybersecurity Roadmap" by the same authors.
