

Open Access Resources

PLI is a nonprofit learning organization dedicated to keeping attorneys and other professionals at the forefront of knowledge and expertise. We are committed to the legal community and our mission, and we offer multiple ways to stay current in today's ever-changing legal environment. Our free resources are available any time to take your learning to the next level.

PLI CHRONICLE

Our online publication offers insights and perspectives for the legal community, giving a voice to the diverse array of professionals working in the legal industry. It features concise articles contributed by legal scholars, practitioners, and other experts on a range of timely topics that are practice area-specific and relevant to the business of law. The Chronicle is published monthly with new articles added to each issue throughout the month.
